

Ursula Müller-Werdan since April 2015 holds the Chair of Geriatrics of the Charité - Universitätsmedizin Berlin. She is a trained geriatrician, cardiologist and intensivist. Her research focuses on mechanisms of cardiac ageing and disease prevention in the elderly.